5,300 employees fired.

> For gaming the targets they were given.

Accounts customers never asked for.

3M+

accounts opened without authorization (DOJ)

Why?

🎯
Aggressive quotas

📈
Pressure from the top

🏦
Sales culture

> Employees were pushed to hit sales goals.

How it unravelled.

2012 Fraud begins (DOJ)

2016 $185M fines, 5,300 fired

2020 $3B settlement

The first bill.

$185M

in fines for unethical sales practices

The big bill.

$3B

to settle civil and criminal cases

The twist: the incentive was the scheme.

MEASURED

Accounts opened

MATTERED

Customers who wanted them

Audit your own incentives:

1. Name the number you're judged on
2. Ask how someone could fake it
3. Measure the outcome, not the activity