1990S–2001

The top Monopoly prizes were stolen by the man guarding them.

@bino_da_producer

Swipe →

"Uncle Jerry" ran security

🛡️ Director of security

👮 Former police officer

🎟️ Held the winning pieces

> at Simon Marketing, the firm that ran McDonald's games.

Instead, prosecutors said, he took the top prizes > and passed them to recruited "winners."

How long?

DOJ, 2001

From at least 1995

LATER ACCOUNTS

From 1989

Then the FBI got a tip.

1996 A $1M winner

Mar 2000 Tip reaches the FBI

Aug 2001 8 arrests, 6 states

Operation Final Answer.

> Run by the FBI's Jacksonville office.

Prizes taken: over

$13M

per the DOJ in 2001. Later accounts: over $24M.

Jacobson's sentence

37 months

plus over $12.5M in restitution

About 50 people convicted.

> Mail fraud and conspiracy.

YOUR RULE

Who checks the checker?

1. No one person holds all the keys
2. Rotate who reviews the review
3. Audit the winners, not just the losers