GERMANY, 1923

A loaf of bread: 250 marks in January.

> By late 1923: about 200 billion.

One US dollar bought 4.2 marks.

4.2

Marks per US dollar, 1914

A war paid for with borrowing and printing.

> Then came reparations.

Troops occupy the Ruhr. The state prints money to pay striking workers.

Prices ran away:

End 1922	~160
Jan 1923	250
Late 1923	~200 bn

One dollar bought:

4.2 trillion

Marks per US dollar, November 1923

Banknotes became wallpaper and fuel.

🧱

Wallpaper

🔥

Fuel

🏃

Spend wages at once

NOV 16, 1923

8/10

The Rentenmark: twelve zeros cut from prices.

@bino_da_producer

Swipe →

Debts in marks vanished. Savings in marks did too.

YOUR RULE

Give every dollar a job:

1. Cash for spending
2. Cash for emergencies
3. Long-term money in assets that keep up

@bino_da_producer

Save this ↓