Pets.com went from IPO to shutdown in 268 days.

@bino_da_producer

Swipe →

A $1.2 million Super Bowl ad

> Starring a sock puppet. "Because Pets Can't Drive!"

IPO on Nasdaq

$11

per share at IPO; briefly above $14

First fiscal year

REVENUE

$619,000

ADVERTISING

$11.8 million

Pet food is heavy. Shipping it is expensive.

🐶

Big bags

📦

Costly shipping

💸

Thin margins

From IPO to zero

Jan $1.2M ad

Feb $11 IPO

Nov $0.19

About 300 jobs lost.

> The sock puppet's rights later sold for $125,000.

The ads worked. Every order didn't.

WHAT THEY HAD

A famous brand

WHAT THEY LACKED

Profit per order

SAVE THIS

Before you scale anything:

1. Know your profit per sale
2. Include shipping and returns
3. Test small first