DECEMBER 21, 2017

An iced tea company added one word to its name.

> The stock jumped as much as 380%.

@bino_da_producer

Swipe →

BEFORE

Long Island Iced Tea Corp. sold bottled drinks.

PRIOR-YEAR LOW

$1.70

PRIOR-YEAR HIGH

$9.49

New name: Long Blockchain Corp.

> It kept selling iced tea.

One announcement:

+380%

Peak jump after the name change

Buy bitcoin-mining equipment. Later dropped.

The unravelling:

Apr 2018 Nasdaq

Jul 2018 SEC

Feb 2021 SEC

No financial reports since Sept 30, 2018.

> The SEC revoked the shares' registration.

SEC: insider trading charges against three people.

$160K

Alleged profit (about $160,000), sold two hours after the news

The name changed overnight. The business didn't.

YOUR RULE

Before you buy the buzzword:

1. Find the revenue line
2. Ask what the buzzword earns today
3. Nothing? You're buying a name tag

@bino_da_producer

Save this ↓